Best Practice-2

1. The Practice of Providing Platform to develop the finer faculties of students

The institution has been focusing the practice of providing a platform to develop the finer faculties of students in the form of publishing books with their contributions. It is a laudable attempt to recognise and inculcate their artistic talents with the realisation of two books until now. It is a continuous process.

(a) A Book review work entitled ‘Natunar Dristire Granthar Jagat’ on Assamese literature done by our students

With a mission to help the students articulating thoughts in a creative way, the institution has made an endeavor for publishing their critically appreciated work entitled ‘Natunar Dristire Granthar Jagat’. The book is a review work embellished with twenty five chapters on twenty five literary masterpieces contributed by our students. The book is a fruitful product of the book review competition

Objectives:

- 1) To encourage the students in the line of developing good habits of reading
- 2) To utilise the reading materials of the library
- 3) To get acquainted with the literary works in their mother tongue in particular
- 4) To recognise the finer faculties of students
- 5) To inculcate interests among students for study literature

Goals:

The institution has arranged a platform to publish students’ writings, which is of course an exceptional attempt in the line of expanding the horizon of creative as well as critical thinking of the students. The College Publication Committee has taken the leading role towards the materialization of the attempt.

(b) A translation book entitled 'Najana Junuka' (Rattles Nine) by our students

It is a compilation of nine famous English poems and its Assamese translations translated in a workshop held at SBMS College, Sualkuchi featuring The HOD, Department of English as the lead translator cum Guide and published by the Publication Committee of the college

Objectives:

- 1) To encourage the students in the line of creative writing
- 2) To provide an exposure to students in order to enhance the finer faculties of students
- 3) To inculcate interests among students for study literature
- 4) To prepare the students to translate from Assamese to English in future course of time

Practice:

The Major students of 2nd & 4th Semester of English department have undertaken the task of translation from English to Assamese. The students have chosen the poems from major curriculum. Three students from 4th Semester have chosen the poems namely, 'The Skunk', 'Digging' and 'The Forge' of Nobel Award Winner, Irish poet, Seamus Heaney. One student has translated W.B. Yeats's poem 'The Lake Isle of Innisfree'. Three students from 2nd Semester have translated three poems of William Blake: 'The Chimney Sweeper', 'The Tiger' and 'The Little Black Boy'. Two students have chosen John Keats's poem 'La Belle Dame Sans Merci' and Langston Hughes's poem 'Harlem'.
